

- ✓ unavail - ineffective, unsuccessful
- probit - honesty, integrity
- leniency - merciful
- ✓ preposterous - ridiculous, absurd, stupid
- ✓ lackadaisical - careless, lax, lazy
- renowned - famous, celebrated
- ✓ merenary - money oriented ✓
- ✓ addled - bewildered
- ✓ effusive - gushing, unrestrained, unreserved, fulsome, extravagant
- ✓ presage - augur, portend, be a sign or warning of (something bad)
- ✓ cumbersome - awkward, heavy
- ✓ sycophant - gain advantage by flattering
- hamper - obstruct, impede, hinder, block
- outdone - surpass, outshine
- ✓ incendiary - person who stirs up a problem
- facile - superficial
- potable - drinkable
- verdant - new and inexperienced
- ✓ jejune - naive, simplistic
- ✓ motley - mixed
- variegated - different colors
- ✓ bereaved - grieving
- ✓ artifice - trickery, dishonesty, cunning, artful
- parsimony - unwilling to spend money or resources
- ✓ pulchritude - attractiveness, beauty
- ✓ aereal - existing, current
- startling - astonishing
- enthral - fascinated
- minutiae - small details
- lulled - soothe
- probit - trustable
- aphorism - proverb
- ✓ unencumbered - no burden
- ✓ hedonism - self indulgence, pleasure
- ✓ efface - eliminate
- ✓ overture - beginning
- brusque - abrupt in manner, blunt, rough
- ✓ berserk - violent, deranged, wild
- recede - withdraw, go back
- ✓ ensue - happen or occurs after a result
- prudent - care
- ✓ parlous - dangerous

- ✓ careen - lean over, tilt , fast out of control
- ✓ providential - favourable
- ✓ trundled - rolled over
- ✓ transmuted - change in form
- intrepid - fearless
- inconsolable - heart broken
- ✓ eremite - solitary and avoid others
- ✓ bleat - weak tone made by a child
- oligarchy - small group of people having govt powers
- ✓ turpitude - wickedness, immorality, depraved, corruption
- ✓ perpetuity - stability
- ✓ besmirch - slander
- amity- peace, friendship
- ✓ mores - customs, conventions
- ✓ bedizen - dress up , equip
- ✓ aggrandize - increased the power and wealth
- ✓ fruition - full fillment
- ✓ parochial - narrowminded
- ✓ squalid - dirty, filthy
- ✓ spartan - austere, harsh
- tony - stylish, smart
- ✓ apollonian - self disciplined
- hinterland - back waters
- rustic - simple, rural, homely
- ✓ incendiary - flammable, stirup
- ✓ effete - ineffectual, affected
- ✓ regressive - old fashioned
- ✓ whet - sharpen, make it interesting
- accrued - accumulated
- ✓ tout - attempt to sell something
- ✓ cahoots - in colloaborating, allied
- ✓ logger head - idiot, foolish person
- pre occupied - distracted
- abet - enocurage, assist
- ✓ stymie - hinder or prevent
- ✓ disintrested - unbiased, a good or a pro
- ✓ solipsistic - selfish
- fulmination - angry speech
- ✓ aspersion - malicious lies
- ✓ muckraking - publicising a scandal of famous people
- ✓ desecration - violation
- ✓ spohistry - trickery, deceit, decieve, duplcity

- ✓ boosterism - to boost an organization
- ✓ aspersion - to attack someone's reputation, slander
- ✓ prattle - chatter, talk in a foolish manner
- ✓ seemly - accepted
- ✓ ululate - grief
- ✓ agog - excited
- nonchalant - untroubled, unworried, calm, relax
- ✓ plangent - mournful
- ✓ seething - filled with anger
- ✓ effete - ineffectual
- ✓ Stygian - dark
- farcical - ridiculous
- ✓ ecumenical - promoting unity
- ✓ evocative - bringing strong memories or feelings to mind
- ✓ redress - correct, remedy
- ✓ unkempt - cluttered
- ✓ adduced - evidence, quote
- ✓ adumbrated - represent the outline
- ✓ purport - appear to be or do something, especially falsely.
- ✓ pander - gratify, satisfy
- fester - septic (skin)
- ✓ congenial - like minded, companion
- ✓ vitreous - smooth, glass like
- grizzled - grey, snowy color
- ✓ doting - adore, extremely fond of
- ✓ rancorous - bitter, resentment, resentful
- ✓ deface - vandalize something
- ✓ decry - denounce, criticize
- ✓ delimit - determine the limitations
- ✓ conceit - self pride
- ✓ masquerade - a false show, bluff, pretend
- crack - a very experienced or a good person
- ✓ layperson - a false person
- ✓ rote - mechanical or habitual of something to be learned
- Disenfranchisement - no voting rights
- ✓ suffrage - right to vote
- ✓ dispensation - exemption
- ✓ chauvinism - aggressive or exaggerated
- ✓ plutocracy - society ruled by the rich people
- hegemony - leadership, dominance
- plum - good
- blather - empty talk

- confabulation - invented talk
- ✓ puffery - false praise, exaggerated praise
- ✓ monogamy - faithfulness, loyalty
- ✓ specter - threat
  - glib - fluent in talking but insincere
- ✓ glean - extract info from various sources
  - premature - first and initiative
- ✓ lascivious - lecherous, sex desire
  - lassitude - lethargy
- ✓ contretemps - quarrel, argument
  - loaf - simply roam around and waste time
  - incongruous - contrary to
    - officious - high handed, big man, commanding
  - clamour - chaos where people are shouting
- ✓ interlude - intermission
- ✓ fealty - loyalty
- ✓ tantamount - equivalent to seriousness
- ✓ detract - criticizing
  - magnanimity - generosity
- ✓ consummate - skilled or accomplished, is the correct choice.
- ✓ mendicant - poor, begging
- ✓ fractious - quarrelsome
- ✓ minatory - threatening
- ✓ apocryphal - untrue
- ✓ chastise - criticize
- ✓ cull - to select
- ✓ countenance - to permit or tolerate
- ✓ eschew - to avoid
- ✓ coeval - duration
- primeval - belonging to the first age of the world
- ✓ anarchy - old fashioned
- ✓ ossified - hardened
- verdant - new
- aggrandize - increase in size
- ✓ essay - attempt, try
- ✓ reciprocate - give, feel in return
- ✓ consecrate - sacred
- ✓ bestow - to give or grant
- ✓ avocations - something done in pleasure or joy
- ✓ sinecures - position that requires no work.
- ✓ archetypes - model from which other things are copied
  - paeon - song of joy or praise

- ✓ billet - job or position
  - abstruse - difficult to understand
- ✓ unctuous - falsely pious
- ✓ facetious - not to be taken literally
  - eloquence - persuasive and powerful discourse or discussion
- ✓ exhilarating - exciting and invigorating
- ✓ meter - rhythmic pattern of a verse
- ✓ covert - secret
- ✓ frenetic - hurry, frantic
- ✓ astringent - biting
- ✓ astute - shrewd
- recondite - obscure
- intransigent - unwilling to compromise
- conciliatory - flexible, appeasing
- ✓ expound - to set forth
- ✓ espouse - to adopt, embrace
- remuneration - compensation
- ✓ accommodation - making exceptions
- ✓ respite - rest
- ✓ testament - something that serves as tangible proof or evidence
- ✓ puerile - immature
- meager - scanty, inadequate
- rapacious, ravenous - extremely hungry
- ✓ exploitative - making use of selfishly and unethically
- ✓ dissolute - lacking moral restraint, indulgence in sensual pleasures,
  - poignant - touching, heartfelt
  - vivacious - full of vivid colours and animation
  - illustrious - widely known and very distinguished.
  - verbose - excess stuff which is pedantic or boring
- ✓ pedantic - being careful
- ✓ adept - highly skilled
- ✓ prolific - productive
- ✓ eschew - give up, deliberately avoid, abstain from
- ✓ engorge - eat to excess
- ✓ vitiate - spoil the quality, impair, weaken
- ✓ espouse - adopt, embrace
- ✓ indolence - lazy, lethargic
- ✓ conjecture - to make an educated guess
  - prevalence - widespread
- ✓ curmudgeon - bad tempered, cantankerous
- ✓ chauvinist - patriotic
  - miser - someone who doesn't share

- ✓ heresy - going against religious stuff
- ✓ acclamation - praise something
- nugatory - insignificant in size
- ✓ sinewy - tough
- stint - frugal
- ✓ pique - provoke
- ✓ whet - stimulate
- ✓ prate - babble